International application No.
PCT/US04/19820

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-27	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims NONE	YES
	Claims 1-27	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-27	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-27 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over Jira in view of Weiner. Jira teaches composition for treating virus induced infection including HIV wherein the composition comprises anti-viral agent such as AZT. The composition can be delivered transdermally or in controlled release devices. However Jira does not teach the composition to comprise mifepristone. Weiner teaches mifepristone inhibits the enhancement of virus production and reduces the level of production of HIV from infected cells. Thus, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to treat HIV infection by providing transdermal device comprising antiviral agents, and add mifepristone to the composition as disclosed by Weiner, motivated by the teaching of Weiner that mifepristone inhibits the enhancement of virus production and reduces the level of production of HIV from infected cells, with reasonable expectation of having transdermal composition comprising antiviral agent and mifepristone that reduces HIV level in the infected cells.
